The pilot successfully demonstrated that demand for an environmentally safe sludge removal and treatment service exists in urban/peri-urban Madagascar, thus contributing valuable learning to the emerging global fecal sludge management subsector.

Newly constructed water kiosks improved access to drinking water for 19,419 people. The sale of SanPlat slabs improved access to sanitation facilities for 1,500 people.