

UNC Water and Health Conference

October 13–17, 2014

Side Events

Monday, October 13

The Theory and Practice of Forming Handwashing Habits.

1–2:30 p.m. – Windflower. WASHplus, the Global Public-Private Partnership for Handwashing, Water and Sanitation Program (WSP), London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine

Because Menstrual Hygiene Matters: Tools and Programming Guidance to Meet Critical Needs of Women and Girls. 3–4 p.m. – Bellflower.

WaterAid, WASHplus, Columbia University, Emory University, Save the Children, Plan, WSSCC, Joint Monitoring Programme, Peace Corps

Tuesday, October 14, 10:30 a.m.–noon – Dogwood

Pioneering Programming Approaches for Integrating WASH and Nutrition

WASHplus, FHI 360, Action Against Hunger, WSP

Friday, October 17, 8:30-10 a.m. – Sunflower

What to Do with Infant Poo? Evidenced-Based Programming to Support Safe Feces Disposal of Young Children’s Feces. WSP, UNICEF, WASHplus

Presentations

Wednesday, October 15

Addressing the Paradox through Small Doable Actions to Improve Domestic Water Management: High Water and Sanitation Access and High Diarrheal Death in Southwest Bangladesh—2–3:30 p.m. – Azalea.

Abu Hena Mustafa Kamal Sikder, WASHplus

Lead (Pb) Contamination of Pitcher Pump Systems in Coastal Madagascar: Health Implications for Sustainable Self-Supply—3:45–5 p.m. – Bellflower. Jonathan Annis, WASHplus, CARE

Poster

Tuesday, October 14

The WASHplus Approach for Discovering, Collecting, Curating, and Disseminating WASH Sector Knowledge and Information—5–6:30 p.m.

Dan Campbell, WASHplus, CARE